MORAN WARNS MAYOR TO STOP INTIMIDATION

ADDRESSES COMMUNICATION BOTH AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND PRIVATE CITIZEN.

District Attorney John B. Moran his issued the following warning to Mayor Fitzgerald. This warning is issued in his official capacity as district attorney:

"Boston, Oct. 30, 1907.

"Hon. John F. Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston:

"Sir—Information has reached me that employes of the city of Boston are being intimidated by some of their superiors in the interests of certain candidates for office. This is a violation of our statute law. If after this date this offence does not instantly and absolutely cease, I will deem it my duty to make an official investigation and present the evidence to the grand jury in November for action."

MORAN'S WARNING AS A PRIVATE CITIZEN

As a private citizen Mr. Moran has also written the following to John F. Fitzgerald, the Mayor:

"In the city's employ there are many thousand hard-working, honest men who render for pay a full day's work to the city.

"They are men honest and true, though their hands are soiled by the grime of toil.

"They are citizens of a free country, each entitled to freedom of body and of mind.

"The right to choose their own candidates and to vote, each in accordance with his conscience, is guaranteed them by our laws.

"They surrender none of these rights when they enter the service of the city.

"They are still free men.

"You, who should be their protector and their shield against official oppression, have recently directed them, after their day's work, to act as agents in canvassing their districts for the political machine of which you are the creator and head.

"Their nights, which should be spent in relaxation and rest with their families and friends, you now turn into hours of unwilling and humiliating political toil.

"They dare not refuse the burden you impose, for each of them has a mother or a wife and children to support and fears that the loss of his job will be the penalty your heartlessness will impose for such refusal.

"They may meekly bow to your order, but the red blood of honest manhood which courses through their veins will throb in righteous indignation, and they will, in the sacred silence of the election booth, register their protests against your tyranny.

"You ought to be in Ireland, as the hated agent of foreign oppression.

"You ought to be in Russia, as one of the villainous minions of monarchical brutality.

"You could in either place, in either capacity, gratify your vanity and your cruelty.

"You could there domineer over subordinates and whirl the whiplash of power over those unfortunate enough to be subject to your tyrannical nature.

"But let me say to you, Mr. Mayor, you shall not, in Boston, deprive a single city employe of his legal privileges, you shall neither intimidate nor threaten him, you shall not impose upon his tired body and unwilling mind political labor, you shall not make of him a slave, you shall not stripe his back with the scorpion lash of fear without suitable and vigorous political action being taken by the one man in this city who despises your political methods and who cares as little for you politically as he does for the unclean rag which lies in the streets' gutter.

"I have no thought at the present time of taking any action in the city fight. As re-elected District Attorney, for I now have your two friends beaten to a standstill, I do not intend to mingle in a city contest.

"But regardless of whether I am successful or unsuccessful in the District Attorney contest, let me warn you, my supply of political patience with you is almost exhausted.

"When I have borne with you and the unclean political methods of your machine until I can bear no longer, I will grapple with you in an embrace which will never cease until I have strangled you politically.

"That day may never come and it may soon come.

"It depends not on me, but on you.

"Sincerely yours,

"JOHN B. MORAN."

SWINGING THE LASH!

"I FORGIVE HIM," SOBS GIRL WIDOW OF DOCTOR SUICIDE

"He Ruined My Life," Says Young Mrs. Day, Telling of the Romance That Ended in the Self-Inflicted Death of Her Physician Husband.

"I forgive him for what he has done, although he has practically ruined my life. I believe that I could forgive him if he were to come back to me to-morrow," said the twenty-year-old widow of Dr. Albert Cushman Day, the young interne at the Boston City Hospital, who last Saturday shot himself in the woods near West Roxbury, when the fact that he had married two women and had engaged himself to a third became known to his first wife.

The young widow laid bare the details of the tragedy for the first time to-day.

"What I said to Dr. Day last Thursday when he came to me, after I had found out that he had married Miss Callahan, or what he said to me that day no one will ever know, not even my mother," continued the young wife as her pretty little baby girl, three years of age, the daughter of Dr. Day, toddled to her side.

To-day knowing that the man who had married her when she was a mere school girl of sixteen, had but a few days ago married Miss Estelle Maud Callahan, a nurse in the Relief Hospital and had last Summer engaged himself to marry Miss Helen Morse, a young society woman of Haverhill, Martina S. Thompson Day solemnly declared:

"I LOVE HIM STILL," SHE CRIES.

"I love Dr. Day still. He did not treat me as he should and I realize that he left me in a very embarrassing position but I forgive him for I love him still.

"When we parted last week after the last interview in which he told me all we parted better friends than ever and loved each other more than ever.

"I have nothing but pity for his mother and Miss Callahan. I am sure that they never knew that I was his wife.

Mrs. William H. Thompson of No. 45 Apthorp street, Norfolk Downs, with whom her daughter lives, here broke into the conversation of her daughter, saying:

"INSANE, MENACE TO SOCIETY."

"Dr. Day was a menace to society, and it is better that he is dead. His debt to the world has been cancelled and he is now before a higher judge." And the daughter sat tearful and silent as her mother scored the memory of the man who had been her husband.

"You ask me how I account for Dr. Day's actions," queried the young widow. "I think that he was insane. I believe that he was not himself mentally.

"I believe that he was not himself and I think that financial worries and the fact of his duplicity to me and to the other women unhinged his mind and led him to suicide. I can account for it in no other way.

"FURNISHED HIM WITH MONEY."

"My father had furnished him with money for the past two years. We had planned to announce our marriage and to go housekeeping next Spring when the doctor should have received his certificate.

"The doctor had always made his home with us when he was not at the hospital for the past two years. We were married at our home in Roslindale on March 16, 1904, by Justice of the Peace Clinton F. Packard, who was a friend of our family.

"I was at the funeral in the hospital. My mother was there with me. I was dressed in mourning. The doctors at the hospital knew that I was his wife for I was the first to identify his body and they then learned all about it at the hospital.

FATHER BROKE NEWS.

"It was my father who first broke the news to me and not the doctor. My father had read of the marriage of Dr. Day to Miss Callahan in the newspapers and he came home and told me. Was I prostrated? Well, look at me when you ask for answer. Some things in this world must be endured.

"But beyond admitting that when he left me that we were better friends than we ever were, and loved each other more, I will not tell a mortal anything about that last talk we had before he left me to shoot himself."

Records in the office of the Boston register of vital statistics prove undeniably that Dr. Day was married to Martina S. Thompson March 16, 1904, in the office of Clinton F. Packard, a justice of the peace, at No. 401 Exeter street, Brookline.

If this were not enough the wife and mother herself supports it with her own statement.

Acknowledging that she had wifely claims on Dr. Day for more than three years before he exposed Miss Callahan, the young woman expresses the kindliest of feelings toward the second Mrs. Day, of whom, she declared, she had never even heard, until the Saturday morning when the physician appeared and apprised her of his second marriage.

First Wife Retains Counsel.

The wife in Norfolk Downs has retained General Charles W. Bartlett of this city as her attorney in securing her rights in the unfortunate matrimonial entanglement which has arisen out of the suicide of the young doctor.

The Haverhill young woman who enters into the matter as engaged to Dr. Day is Miss Helen Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Morse.

Dr. Day was a frequent visitor at the Morse home for eight years. The Morses knew him as of high character. The daughter accepted him as an ideal man and was looking forward with happiness to their marriage. The engagement had been announced last June in a quiet way.

Just before Dr. Day was married to Miss Callahan he wrote Miss Morse his final letter, in which he said that he had selected another girl for his wife, and that he did not expect to visit Haverhill again.

Martina Thompson was only sixteen years of age when she accompanied Dr. Day to the office of a Brookline justice and was there married to him. Her mother, Sabina C. Thompson, had to write her parental consent on the back of the license before the ceremony could be performed. At that time the girl's father, William A. Thompson, a shipper at No. 87 Lincoln street, Boston, was residing with his family in Roslindale.

The license for Miss Callahan's marriage was signed by "Albert E. C. Day, son of Albert Day and Alice S. Bailey, home in New York and occupation, physician.

BELIEVE WOMAN SLAIN; POLICE HUNT STRANGER

MEDICAL EXAMINER TO PERFORM AUTOPSY; FOUND DEAD IN LODGING HOUSE.

Acting under orders of Medical Examiner MacDonald, the police of Lagrange street station are trying to solve the mystery in connection with the death of a handsome woman, about forty years old, whose body was found in her room in a lodging house owned by John Dubee at No. 188 Harrison avenue to-day.

Marks, which lead the police to suspect that she was murdered, were found on her body. The police are anxious to locate a man who was in her company yesterday. The key of the room in which she was found was locked and the key had disappeared.

There were no papers in the woman's effects to give a clue to her identity, and people in the vicinity of Harrison avenue who had seen her frequently during the last few weeks do not know her name.

Finds Woman Dead.

Mr. Dubee went to her room at 7:30 o'clock this morning to call her, and when she did not respond to his calls and knocks on the door he opened it with a pass key and found her dead in bed.

There were black and blue marks on her arm and throat.

"I went up to call the woman," Mrs. Dubee told a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter to-day, "and when I opened the door I saw that she was dead. When I saw the black and blue marks I notified the police and they sent for Medical Examiner MacDonald. I do not know who the woman was. She came to my house Monday with a man about her own age, who said he was her husband.

To Perform an Autopsy.

"Last night the man who we saw go out in the afternoon returned to the house. A few minutes later he went away and we have not seen him since."

Medical Examiner MacDonald, after he viewed the body, refused to advance a theory as to the cause of the woman's death, but ordered that the body be removed to the City Hospital morgue for an autopsy.

The police have learned that a few days ago the woman roomed at No. 101 Harrison avenue, but here the other occupants say that they know nothing about her.

Actions speak louder than words.
John B. Moran's ACTIONS have prevented the grafters from stealing City Hall.

THE WEATHER.

I Sold Your Neighbor's House Last Week

He had been trying a long time to dispose of it without success. A friend whose house I had sold told him about me, and he called on me. I sold it for him in two days at very small cost. I will sell yours, no matter where situated, what the size or price, some one wants just such a house. I can find the party for you because I go into more than 500,000 homes, where I offer it for sale.

LEAGUE CANDIDATES RECEIVE ROUSING WELCOME IN LAWRENCE AND LOWELL

Great Enthusiasm Marks Rallies in Mill Cities and Hundreds Pledge Support to Ticket Headed by Thomas L. Hisgen.

Two rousing Independence League rallies were held last night at Lowell and Lawrence. In each city remarkable receptions were given the party leaders by crowds which packed the halls. Hundreds were unable to gain admittance.

At Franco-American Hall, Lawrence, Thomas L. Hisgen, candidate for Governor, spoke for half an hour amid frequent cheers, after which hundreds came forward and clasped the hand of the Standard Oil Trust foe. Scores of former Republicans and Democrats pledged him and the League ticket their votes.

The other Lawrence speakers were Washington L. Coles, the blind orator, and Junius T. Auerbach of Boston.

Mr. Hisgen was also given a stirring reception at Associate Hall, Lowell, the home city of William N. Osgood, Independence League candidate for Attorney-General. E. Gerry Brown, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, was applauded loudly when he entered the hall, and his vigorous criticism of Eben S. Draper, Guild and Whitney was frequently interrupted by cheers.

Dennis J. Ring, candidate for Secretary of State, called the meeting to order, and Mr. Osgood presided.

HISGEN'S BRIEF PLATFORM.

Mr. Hisgen, the first speaker introduced, said in part:

"I will state simply the platform I have been campaigning on. It has four planks. First, anti-merger; second, anti-discrimination, to prevent the monopolies, which have control of things, from charging different prices in different sections; third, anti-monopoly — down with the Trusts! fourth, thou shalt not steal.

"I am in perfect sympathy, fellow workmen, with your efforts to better your condition. I am also in perfect sympathy with trial by jury in contempt cases.

"As to the paramount issue. You all know what you are paying for commodities. The necessities of life are constantly advancing, and yet laboring men are not making within twenty-five per cent. of the wages of a year ago, because the increase in necessities with no increase in wages reduces wages to that extent.

"I charge the Republican party with this crime of letting the Trusts do what they like. It does not enforce the law. If I am elected Governor I promise you—the little dealer, the big dealer, the rich, the poor, the strong, the weak, shall all be treated alike."

KEEP IT HANDY

$500,000 LOSS IN CHICAGO BLAZE

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Stock valued at $350,000 is almost a total loss, while the building, worth about $100,000, is badly damaged by a fire now raging in Holden Brothers' shoe store, Nos. 225-231 State street. Fireman Ed Sullivan of Truck No. 7 was badly injured by a falling ladder.

Guild is a puppet on a stick, worked by a string in the hands of Boss Lodge, who permits meat and milk to be taken from the mouths of babes while he tours the State talking—fighting on false and fake issues concerning the robber tariff.

E. B. Draper, who permitted no labor unions in his million dollar plant, is talking protection while in his mills he permits child labor.

Whitney, who murdered the Democratic party, is recognized as a debaucher of honest politics.—From speech of Junius Auerbach at Lawrence.

BROWN TELLS WHY LABOR SUPPORTS THE LEAGUE

E. Gerry Brown said in part:

"There is no leader that controls the labor vote. The labor vote can be controlled only by arguments that appeal to reason. The man who comes into the union movement for what he can get out of it disgraces unionism.

"The slogan of labor is: 'Defeat your enemies, reward your friends, and stand always by your union card.' If you go into battle with that, then we are sure of victory.

"There is just one platform. You can't find in the Republican or Democratic platforms any references to our labor measures, but you do find them in the Independence League platform. Neither Mr. Whitney nor Governor Guild has ever said one word in favor of the Public Opinion bill or our other labor measures. Think it over."

Thomas E. Finnerty of Clinton, League candidate for State Auditor, Ex-Mayor Walter L. Ramsdell of Lynn and Washington A. Coles of Boston, the blind orator and lifelong friend of Mr. Hisgen, were the closing speakers.

$50,000 GEM THEFTS IN ATTLEBORO PLANTS

Special to the Boston American.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Oct. 31.—Through the confession of Gideon Thibodeau, an employe at the G. K. Webster silverware factory, the police have learned that a gang of thieves has systematically robbed the jewelry factories of the Attleboros of fully $50,000 worth of goods in the past two years.

For many, than a year detectives have been working on a case that led to Thibodeau's arrest. After three hours' siege from the "third degree," the thief confessed, implicating a number of other employes in the larceny.

Many Arrests Expected.

Thibodeau, the police say, has made a confession in which he implicates many persons who live in the Attleboros.

He is said to have told the police that jewelry has been stolen from most of the forty or fifty jewelry establishments in the Attleboros, and within a few weeks it is said several arrests will be made.

One jewelry manufacturer told the police that within a year jewelry valued at $5,000 has been stolen from his factory.

Ringleader Disappears.

Thibodeau appeared in the Fourth District Court this morning, pleaded not guilty and was held in $100 bail until Tuesday.

Simultaneously with Thibodeau's arrest, the ringleader of the gang disappeared.

At the time, a year ago, when William Ribeau was arrested and sentenced to twelve years imprisonment for holding up and trying to rob Arthur Green, Jr., of the Webster firm's payroll currency, information as to jewelry thefts was received from a factory employe who had been suspected.

The investigation finally disclosed the fact that the jewelry thefts were the work of an organized gang. The members of it came from Providence, Pawtucket and other places when the jewelry factories were so pressed for help that they were taking on all applicants.

The gang required each of its members to steal a fixed amount of property daily. This was pooled and placed in the hands of an agent, who disposed of it on the road. Regular dividends were declared.

The detectives were unable to prove anything, however, until a week ago, when a man priced a certain bracelet manufactured here and sold in a retail jewelry store. The jeweler told him it cost $5. He said he could get the same thing of an employe at the factory for 75 cents. The police got information from him.

LAWYERS PRAISE EXPERT TESTIMONY

Prominent lawyers expressed confidence in the value of expert medical testimony in court trials at a banquet of the Boston Society of Examining Physicians and Surgeons in the Parker House last night. The subject under discussion was "The Medical Witness in the Courts of Massachusetts."

Former Attorney-General Herbert Parker, who was unable to attend, sent his regrets and expressed sympathy with any movement that will dignify the medical expert.

"An honest physician in court need not fear cross-examination or abuse from opposing counsel," declared Henry F. Hurlburt.

Among the other speakers, who spoke in favor of medical testimony, were John H. Magenis, former Senator W. A. Morse and Samuel H. Child.

Dr. Francis D. Donoghue, president of the organization, acted as toastmaster at the banquet.

The highest-grade, lowest-priced clothing that bears the Union Label is Morse-made.

If it's at Morse's, it's correct. If it's correct, it's at Morse's.

"Use the very best overcoatings and linings that are made—put your highest skilled tailors at work—spare no cost, but demonstrate the capabilities of the Leopold Morse Co. organization for the production of the finest quality possible in ready-made overcoats."

Those were the instructions our manufacturing chief received. He followed them out to the letter and the following items tell the results:

At $50, Black and Oxford Moule; Oxford Kersey also.

At $45, Black Patent Beaver.

At $40, Black Kersey.

All of these overcoats are silk-lined throughout; all of them have hand-padded collars and lapels, hand-made buttonholes; in fact, every detail shows the work of "your" tailors.

Some of the garments have neat cuff effects piped with velvet.

All sizes among them, from 36 to 42. "Longs" and "shorts" in some of them.

They mark the highest point ever reached by Morse-made clothing and testify anew to its superiority.

The Importance of Regular Habits

The welfare of the body depends upon how regularly the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels perform their respective duties. Carelessness or delay in attending to Nature's demands, brings on disorders which, sooner or later, have a bad effect on the general health.

Sluggish bowels, inactive liver, retarded digestion are important matters calling for immediate attention.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

are a proven remedy. They possess corrective properties which act favorably upon the several organs and induce free and regular movements, so very essential to the bodily health. Do not fail to give instant attention to the calls of Nature. Neglect invites disease. Beecham's Pills are the old and reliable safeguard of health and can always be depended upon to

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT. POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

The Honorable Patrick A. Collins evidently anticipated the notorious Fenway Grafters when he said in a speech in Faneuil Hall several years ago:

"Where'er ye shed the honey
The buzzing flies will crowd;
Where'er ye fling the carrion,
The raven's croak is loud."

KEEP THE COURTS OUT OF POLITICS

VOTE FOR SEAVEY

DON'T LET THE MAYOR BLUFF YOU

Hang Moran's Picture in Your Window IF YOU WANT TO

News has come to this office that Henry Fitzgerald, brother of the Mayor, has been going about in certain parts of the city, ordering storekeepers and others who had displayed the picture of John B. Moran in their windows to take down the pictures.

Some of the persons who had displayed these pictures obeyed orders and took down the offending portraits. Others REFUSED TO DO SO.

The spirit of '76 is not yet dead in Boston. There are enough citizens here who will not tolerate boss rule and political graft, to stand by John B. Moran in the desperate effort that is now being made to defeat him.

Fitzgerald may stop a few weak-kneed old persons from displaying the portrait of the District Attorney in their windows, but he cannot stop the voters from voting AS THEY PLEASE on election day.

He cannot stop MEN who believe in fair play and in the elimination of graft from politics from placing Moran's picture where the public can see it.

The AMERICAN still has a few of these portraits of Moran. If any citizen with enough red blood in his veins to resent the Mayor's impertinence desires to hang one of these pictures in his window, we will take pleasure in presenting him a copy.

The pictures can be had upon application at No. 80 Summer street.

2,000 IN STRIKE FOR AMERICAN WOMANHOOD

ARLINGTON MILLS DEPARTMENT TIED UP IN DEMAND FOR FOREMAN'S DISCHARGE.

Special to the Boston American.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 31.—Declaring that their fight is for American womanhood, two thousand weavers, warp binders and loom fixers of the Arlington mills, now on strike, announced today that they would never return to the mills unless Overseer James W. Bolton was dismissed. In a statement of their grievances, to be presented to Agent William D. Hartshorne today, the strike committee declares that Bolton, who has only held his position eight weeks, is tyrannical to the help and profane even in the presence of women operatives.

Of the two thousand about thirteen hundred are women. One of their leaders is Mary Bansher, an expert worker, who gave to the BOSTON AMERICAN the position she and her associates have taken.

Bansher said:

"Women Must Be Respected."

"Our fight is for American womanhood. That covers the whole situation. The girls who labor at the looms in Massachusetts must be respected as women, even by the overseers. She is in most factories, and she must be in the Arlington. That must be settled, and we propose to have it settled right now."

Unorganized as a labor union but standing together in this matter, the strikers have appointed a committee to act for them. This committee asked that all the employees of the Arlington on strike should keep away from the mill gates. The request was obeyed. So quiet was it around the mill that even the presence of the one policeman was not necessary.

The committee meets Agent Hartshorne of the mills this afternoon and present their grievances. They have nothing to say about pay and the hours are satisfactory. The whole fight is directed against Overseer Bolton.

Agent Hartshorne said to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter:

"A large part of our employes are out, and under peculiar conditions, but these conditions do not warrant a statement from me at this time. We are simply doing our duty as officials in managing the mills. That is all I have to say at present."

BOSTON MAN BUYING EASTERN S. S. STOCK

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 31.—It is stated here in steamboat circles that William H. Hill, of the banking firm of Richardson, Hill & Co., No. 40 Water street, Boston, is buying all the Eastern Steamship Company stock he can get, with the object of getting control of the Boston & Bangor line, of which for years he was president.

ARRESTED AS THIEF.

Warner S. Cram, 24 years old, of Burlington, Vt., was arrested yesterday by Inspector Harris of Police Headquarters on a charge of stealing property valued at $20.45 from Amory R. Curtis of 208 State street, his former employer, on October 18.

HOSE HOUSE TURNED INTO MAINE SCHOOL

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 31.—Fully 300 Portland children who are attending the public schools cannot be provided with seats in the school buildings and because of that condition are being accommodated in a hose house, as can be fitted up in dwelling houses and in a structure formerly used as a hose house.

BATTERY B REUNION.

WORCESTER, Oct. 31.—Battery B, of the 1st battalion, light artillery, M. V. M., observed its thirty-eighth anniversary last night with a banquet and vaudeville entertainment.

BANDITS WRECK SAFE IN ESSEX POSTOFFICE

BURGLAR GANG USE NITROGLYCERINE IN ROBBERY AND ESCAPE IN AUTOMOBILE.

ESSEX, Oct. 31.—The bandit gang which has committed seven robberies in the State within the past two weeks, blew open the postoffice safe in this town early today with nitro-glycerine, and, when townspeople were alarmed, escaped in an automobile.

Scarcely had the rumble of the explosion of the safe died away than shouts of "help" aroused the townspeople within several blocks of the postoffice. In spite of the alarm the burglars coolly went at their work until they discovered that the safe contained but a few pennies and stamps, when they hurried down Essex street and a few minutes later to change-ing of an automobile was heard going in the direction of Southboro and Boston.

Tremendous excitement prevailed in the town. Scarcely-clad people hurried into the street only to stand for hours in the biting cold of the morning, while the burglars were speeding away to safety.

Scores of policemen, special officers and detectives are at work in Boston and the surrounding country today, aided by a force of postoffice inspectors in an effort to round up the burglars who have created terror in towns of this section and had the bring to their credit a safe in the very heart of Boston's financial district.

2 PRISONERS ESCAPE JAIL

CLAREMONT, N. H., Oct. 31.—By tearing out the stone ceiling of their cell two prisoners in the Windsor, Vt., prison, made their escape through the roof of the jail the jail early today.

Germaine had three more years of a sentence for grand larceny to serve. He is also twenty-two years old, five feet two inches in height, crookedly built, has black hair, dark brown eyes, and misses the middle finger of his left hand.

LYNN UNION RAPS DRAPER

LYNN, Oct. 31.—The Lynn Painters of Decorators' Union has adopted resolutions condemning Lieutenant Governor Draper's attitude toward union labor at Speedale, and in accordance with a request of the State Branch, A. F. of L., all the other labor bodies of this city will take similar action.

PRODUCERS FIRM; DEFY CONTRACTORS

Busy Completing Plans for Active Competition in the Boston Milk Market.

This is the last day the Boston milk contractors have allowed the producers to sign their new six months' contracts, and a dispatch from Worcester to-day says that there has been no break in the ranks of the Worcester county men. These producers will continue to ship to Boston independently until the plans for competition in the Boston retail market are completed.

The contractors announced that the price would be one cent less per can to all farmers who did not sign contracts by October 31. The Worcester county men say that, if one cent a can is deducted from the price allowed them for milk, they will sue for the balance. Jonas Bemis of Charlton has advised the producers that, if they receive checks on the 25th each month by the contractors, they should credit the contractors with that amount, and later steps will be taken to recover payment at the rate of 28 cents a can, the price fixed by the former arbitration entry this month.

Reliable men in Worcester believe that if a trolley freight franchise is granted in Boston, as one has just been given in Worcester to the Worcester Consolidated Street Railway Company, it will furnish a means of competition for the producers. In such a case they can have the steam railroads and ship their milk to Boston by trolley. They would get lower rates and would be better able to cope with the Boston market in competition with the contractors. The Boston & Worcester Company is anxious to establish a freight and express service between the two cities.

The producers expect no trouble now in financing their refrigerator car proposition. The railroads require yearly leases, under which, however, every shipper of farm transportation rates are possible. The Worcester County shipment is sufficient to run from ten to fifteen refrigerator cars daily, if all is sent to the Boston market. The whole Boston supply amounts to about fifty cars daily.

BILL POSTER SHOT BY A POLICEMAN

John McGinnis of No. 67 Charter street is a patient at the Relief Hospital with a bullet in his thigh as a result of being mistaken for a burglar while he was doing a midnight favor for a friend by posting placards. Reserve Officer St. George and the man, who, he says, were acting suspiciously and fled at them.

REBELS FACE DEATH IN RUSSIAN MUTINY

COURT-MARTIAL AT VLADIVOSTOK BEGINS; SIEGE STATE DECLARED.

VLADIVOSTOK, Oct. 31.—The court martial has commenced of the soldiers concerned in Tuesday's uprising against the loyalists here and of the sailors who mutinied yesterday on the torpedo boat destroyer Skory, fought a bloody battle with other craft in the harbor, shelled the town and, finally, beached their boat to keep it from sinking under them.

The ringleaders are certain to be shot. Their followers are expected to be sentenced to penal servitude for life. Whether there was a connection between the two outbreaks is not yet clear.

Show Reckless Bravery.

The land battle, beginning with the mutiny of a battalion of sappers recently arrived at the barracks here, was a small affair as compared with the harbor engagement, though in the former five men were killed and a number wounded. The sappers had rifles and ammunition for a long fight but were routed by a hail of shots from machine guns in the barracks, run down by the loyalist force and placed under arrest.

The uprising on the destroyer Skory began with the slaying of the commander, Lieutenant Stoer. The vessel then steamed to the arsenal of the city and opened fire on the town. Several buildings had been partly demolished and a number of persons killed before the artillery in one of the harbor forts opened fire, and the loyalist destroyers Carsovoi, Sinely and Serditz and the gunboat Mandschur got into action.

Even then the Skory's crew continued to fight desperately, dividing its fire between the attacking craft and the fort. When completely riddled and sinking, the steersman ran the boat through the surf and beached her.

Many Dead and Wounded.

It was evidently the mutineers' plan to escape, after a strong show of force had them as they landed, boycotted many and made the city prisoners.

The Skory's deck was a shambles, nearly every one in the crew having been killed or wounded by the storm of shots which riddled the craft.

Several of those on the loyalist craft and in the fort also lost their lives, among them Captain Kurowski, commander of the Smely. Lieutenant Vassilef, commanding the Serditz, was wounded.

The two mutinies are the more alarming in that they indicate a renewal of revolutionary activity in both navy and army. The officers fear a fresh epidemic of uprisings like those which kept them in fear a year ago. The authorities are determined to check the disorders at once, if possible, and the survivors of the two latest rebellions are sure to be dealt with with the utmost severity.

Vladivostok has been declared in a state of siege and no one is allowed abroad after nightfall unless provided with a pass. The United States Consul has sent word to his colleagues at the various ports that an American girl and practical nurse, Miss Bertha between Russian sailors and a mob of civilians.

Four Rallies To-morrow.

To-morrow night's rallies are booked for Springfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Easthampton. The heads of the ticket are expected to speak briefly in each of the four meetings.

FIXES SCALE ON VOTE SELLING

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 31.—A remarkable contribution to political campaign literature is a circular issued over the name of E. M. Tillinghast, of Exeter, a village of Washington County, advising the voters of Exeter to sell their votes and they will be offered them on election day for their votes.

"You are unlikely to have any Democratic competition next year unless you voters see to it that the Democratic ticket gets at least ninety votes, or any votes for every five given to the Republicans," the circular says.

"To those who feel they must have the Republican money and must give 'dead' something for their money let me suggest the following. Give them what they will pay for. If they give $5 or less, vote the straight Democratic ticket. Cross out the Representative, and for the $5 put a cross at the left of the Republican candidate for that office. If they give you $10 vote the straight Democratic ticket, but cross out the Senator and the Democratic office to the Republicans. If they give you $15 vote as before, but cross out and give to the Republicans both Senator and Representative. If they give you $20 give them a straight Republican ticket."

EXPLORER TO LECTURE HERE

Captain Ronald Amundsen, the first man to navigate the Northwest Passage, and who located by the finest instruments the exact position of the Magnetic North Pole, is coming to Boston to lecture in Tremont Temple Monday night.

He will tell the story of his wonderful dash into the polar regions and of the hardships he and his companions expert enced in his little fishing vessel, the Gjoa, in which they penetrated the polar regions. Some of the outfit that the captain used on his trip is now on exhibition on the third floor of the H. H. White Company's store, in the oriental rug department. In the collection are the last which Captain Amundsen and his men used when they were making their observations at the magnetic pole, a toboggan sledge on which he traveled 1,000 miles, drawn by dogs, some Eskimo dogs, a driftwood, the skin of a polar bear which killed some of the expedition's fullfish dogs, Eskimo dresses and jewelry, and bric-a-brac from the land of the midnight sun.

The souvenirs of the captain's famous trip will only be on exhibition at White's this week.

WORCESTER TO HEAR LEAGUE MEN TONIGHT

President of Central Labor Union Will Introduce the Speakers at Big Rally.

Charles A. Cullen, president of the Central Labor Union of Worcester, will be the presiding officer at tonight's big Independence League rally in the "Heart of the Commonwealth."

Mr. Cullen will introduce to Worcester a group of the ablest speakers that have addressed the electorate in that vicinity for a number of years, including Thomas L. Hisgen, the candidate for Governor; E. Gerry Brown, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor; former Mayor Walter L. Ramsdell of Lynn, Junius T. Auerbach, the eloquent young Boston attorney, and Washington A. Coles, Dorchester's blind orator.

Concert and Reception.

Prior to the rally the speakers will hold a reception at the Bay State House. A splendid band concert will be a feature of the Mechanics' Hall exercises.

An industrial community of the front rank, no city in Massachusetts is more vitally interested than Worcester in the issues that Mr. Hisgen is bringing before the people.

The Worcester rally, therefore, is expected to be one of the banner events of a campaign whose success has so confused the old-time and practical politicians that all the usual forecasts and claims have not been made. Indications on schedule time and are not expected.

WOULD OPEN GRAVE TO FIND HUSBAND

LYNN, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Mary Regan of No. 31 Adams street is endeavoring to raise funds for the exhuming of the body of an unidentified man who was buried in Lowell a month ago, and whom she is convinced is her husband, whom she had not seen nor heard from since August 18.

REUNION AT VICKSBURG.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 31.—The thirty-seventh reunion of the Society of the Army of Tennessee is to be held November 7 and 8.

SAVE WOMEN FROM DEATH IN BLAZING HOTEL

Guests, in Panic, Carried Down Ladders as Dover Building Burns.

DOVER, N. H., Oct. 31.—To-day the American House, the largest hotel in this city, is in ruins from a disastrous fire which endangered the lives of scores of guests and employes.

Many were driven from their slumbers by the crackling flames, and cries of alarm, men and women in panic rushed frantically into the streets, scantily clad, and many narrow escapes from death are reported. Four guests, including two women, were carried down from the burning hotel by the fire men by means of ladders, while a fifth, Christopher Jackson, of the American Express Company, was taken out unconscious. Others escaped by climbing down gutter pipes from the burning building.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. James E. Lathrop, who was aroused by the smell of smoke and gave the alarm.

Among those who had narrow escapes from the flames were Frank Carter and James Cuffney, both of Lowell. Carter was partially overcome by smoke and was assisted to the roof by C. A. Overall of Boston. Carter revived when he reached the open air and climbed down the gutter pipe to the street from the top of the building. Overall was not affected by the smoke and was able to make his way out through the building.

Miss Patrick Shea and Miss Bertha Thompson, employes of the hotel, were among those carried from the burning building.

The hotel is a three-story building with two annexes of wood and brick. The annex on Central street was owned by Peter Thirol street, and was owned by Adams Peirce and Thomas Cushman.

The first floor of the annex Mc-Mernon Odell's saloon was badly damaged by water. The financial loss is set at $15,000.

NEW COMET HEADS IN THIS DIRECTION

The Mellish comet, named after a farmer in Cottage Grove, Wis., because he was the first to discover it, is believed to be headed this way and may be visible in Boston during the Winter. Farmer Mellish first saw the comet October 14, when he was using a home-made telescope. Now the object is reported coming nearer every day. At the naval observatory an attempt is being made to-night to locate it so long it will take the comet to pass the earth. The orbit has been confirmed at the Harvard observatory.

RENOUNCE OLD PARTIES AND JOIN LEAGUE

QUINCY, Oct. 31.—P. J. Healey, of 1371 Washington street, a well-known insurance broker and a strong factor in the Republican party of this city said, "I have been a Republican for over thirty years, but I think that the time is ripe for a new party. The Socialists are too radical and the Republican and Democratic parties are too corrupt.

"The Independence League party is just what this State and all other States need. I am going to vote for the whole Independence League ticket."

Mr. Dexter Vinton Pierce, well-known author and business man of this city said, "I have investigated the Independence League and believe that it is the only thing that will save the Commonwealth.

"I am going to vote the straight Independence League ticket. I found after a searching investigation that all of the candidates on the Independence League ticket are honest and worthy of my honest man's support."

HELD FOR GLOVE THEFT.

Thomas Hefferman, alias Charles Farrell, was arrested at one of the big department stores yesterday, charged with stealing gloves worth $20.

Blind Orator Whose Eloquence Stirs Thousands in Campaign

Snapshots of Washington A. Coles, showing striking platform attitudes and remarkably expressive face of this Dorchester orator who has made a notable impression all over the State. He will be one of the speakers at the big Independence League rally at Tremont Temple Saturday night. Mr. Coles is a striking figure. Though he is totally blind, he talks straight into the faces of his audience, as though his sight were perfect. He received the best of educational training in early life, and is a natural orator. He speaks eloquently and convincingly.

N.Y. MAN WEDS BOSTON GIRL

Dorchester lost another favorite daughter last evening by the marriage of Miss Ella V. McCarthy of Edison Green to Frank M. Donahue, now of New York, formerly of Medford and Boston.

One of the many gifts to the bride was an elaborate wedding supper tendered by her uncle, William D. Desmond of the Desmond Publishing Company, at his residence on Cottage street. Only the immediate families were present.

Mr. Donahue was well known in Boston as a granolithic contractor, and is now managing the big New York sight seeing automobile company. The couple will be at home at 143 One Hundred and Forty-second street after January 1 next.

DOCTOR STRONG HISGEN ALLY

Robert E. Conlin, M. D., of Woburn is one of the most interested workers in the city in the interest of Thomas L. Hisgen, the Independence League candidate for Governor, for the reason that Mr. Hisgen is a man who is and always has been a worker for the working people of Massachusetts.

Dr. Conlin says that he has known of Mr. Hisgen and of his efforts to beat the trusts, and admires him for the work he has done for Western Massachusetts.

The doctor, who has always been democratic in his views, to a certain extent believes in voting for the best man, and he believes that Mr. Hisgen is the man for Governor of this State.

So much enthused over Mr. Hisgen is the doctor that he has hung the picture of the Independence League candidate in the window of his office at 333 Main street.

BOSH AGAIN!!!

A SMALL CONTRIBUTION FROM THE

ATLAS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

DEDICATED TO THE FIN. COM.

EULOGY ON A DOG

A large sized dog, like a large sized frog,
Barked all night and day.
His howl was gruff, what though 'twas bluff,
He was large, he had his way.

A bully was this large sized dog
And 'vantage took of size,
He snarled at all, if they were small,
One day he met surprise.

A dog's a dog, a king's a king,
A miser is a miser,
Both proud in name and proud in fame,
The big dog's name was Kaiser.

"Break! Break! Break!
On the cold gray stones, O sea!"
Kaiser's dead—alas! alas!
He barked, but up the wrong tree.

A New Piano For Your Old One

This $320 Conway Piano Absolutely Free

We want the oldest piano in New England for exhibition purposes. There are hundreds of old pianos in New England. Yours may be the oldest. Answer the questions today, and if you have the oldest piano you will be given absolutely free this magnificent new Conway upright piano.

CONDITIONS

1. This offer applies only to upright or square pianos now in actual use; no pianos in storage will be considered.

2. As piano dealers, we are in possession of facts which will enable us to judge the age, but in order that no mistake can be made, we will need an able representative to examine any piano that seems to be the oldest.

3. If there is a contest between several pianos, we will have a disinterested piano expert called and the decision of this judge will be final.

4. This offer closes Nov. 16, 1907.

THE PRIZES

For the oldest piano we will give a magnificent $320 Conway upright.

To cover one owning an old piano or one of any unique style or with a history we will give a valuable prize. Special prizes for all organs.

WHAT TO DO

Fill out coupon. The number of an upright is usually found on the plate near the top of the back; on the lid and back of the grand strings. Numbers on squares are usually found on the plate near the beginning of the strings in front. On organs the numbers will be found on the back or the end side of the case.

Coupon. Send this in to-day.

In sending in this coupon, I hereby agree to abide by the judges' decision.

Go Back To Nature

Now Tried Today Throughout the Medical World.

Prominent Part in Sane Practice Taken by Boston Physician.

On every hand to-day the cry is, go back to nature and give nature a chance! For many years the health and happiness of many people have been endangered, if not entirely lost, by the administration of drugs and chemicals. Less medicine is being taken every day, and the thinking men in the world are beginning to recognize the words of St. John in Rev. 12, 2: "The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nation."

No one will deny that the vegetable and botanic kingdoms and the iron sources from which medicine should be derived.

Dr. J. H. Liverpool, the subject of this article, was born of a Cherokee mother and a Scandinavian father. His father was chief medicine man of the Santa Fe for over fifty years, his mother was educated by the missionaries. After learning all that he could from his father and the native tribes of Indians, he came to Boston and studied medicine as practiced by the white race.

For thirty years he has dispensed the healing salts contained in herbs and barks. He is permanently located at 509 Tremont street, Boston, and can be consulted there by any of his many friends, except Wednesday and Thursday, and on those days he can be found at 220 Grove street, Malden, Mass., Tel. Boston office 1725-1 Tremont. He does not claim to do the impossible, but will give you an honest opinion of your case and describe minutely to you every herb and gum without any previous information from you.

No Old Style Dental Work

Don't let any dentist put old-style teeth in your mouth, either on a set, crown or bridge; they will spoil your face. Before having any work done investigate Dr. King's Natural Gum teeth, for set, crown or bridge work. They are the only teeth known to nature and look absolutely natural. Easy to make and shape. Wise people are no longer paying for old-style dentistry. See Dr. King and get the latest.

Full set teeth, gold crowns, bridge work $5; gold filling, $1 up; other fillings 50c. painless extraction free when teeth are ordered. Hours, 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 9 to 1. Telephone 522 Oxford. Examinations and advice free.

MEAT PRICES ARE HIGHER; NO REDUCTION IN SIGHT

Housekeepers who had hoped that there was to be a reduction in the price of beef, mutton, pork and other foodstuffs because of reports arriving from the West have had pleasant anticipations in vain.

There is no sign of a cut in the price of beefsteak and any other kind of beef, or in mutton, pork or any variety of meat, local butchers say. Prices are now at the record notch. Never, not even in war times, were they ever so high.

No Signs of Reduction.

Boston wholesalers say that they have not heard of any price reduction. The prices asked by retail butchers show conclusively that there has been none.

In New York dealers say they expect that prices will be higher this Winter than they were last.

One of Swift & Company's agents laughed at the idea of cheaper beef.

"Why," he said, "everything points to higher prices. There are fewer steers and shippers are holding out for higher prices. There is also a bigger demand for American beef abroad than ever before. I don't see where the public is going to get any cheaper steak."

The Beef Trust controls such a large percentage of all the meat supplies of the country that there is practically no such thing as competition. They charge the consumers exactly what they please and prices have been mounting higher and higher ever since the Trust was organized. Sooner than sell American beef at home at lower prices than prevail, the Trust prefers to send the cattle across the Atlantic ocean, where it is sold in English and other markets at a lower price than it can be bought in Boston.

Deny Trust Statement.

It is sold at a lower price in Europe than in Boston, although the foreign cattle must pay, in the purchase price, the cost of carrying cattle across the Atlantic.

From the far West and all other sections where cattle and sheep are raised comes the plaint from drovers and herders that they are not getting any of the fancy prices which the Trust exacts from consumers. The Trust says what it pleases for beef on the hoof. The men who have raised the cattle have to accept what the Trust offers. The Trust has made itself the only customer by destroying competition. Then the Trust charges the people who eat meat as high prices as it sees fit to ask. The people have to pay or go without meat.

This is the time of the year when beef should be the lowest in price, because the cattle now slaughtered are grass and corn fed. But the poorer quality of meat has not resulted in lower prices. Dealers say that they expect it to go up.

WAKEFIELD'S ONLY ICE COMPANY PUTS UP PRICE OF ICE

WAKEFIELD, Oct. 31.—Much indignation prevails here over the announcement made yesterday that the Morrill, Atwood Ice Company will advance the price of ice 20 per cent. to-morrow. F. H. Atwood, treasurer of the company, declares the advance is due to the increased expense of handling the ice. The Middlesex Trading Ice Company recently went out of business, and the Morrill, Atwood Company has the field to itself.

F. H. Atwood, treasurer of the Morrill Atwood Company, was one of seventeen ice dealers indicted last Spring by District Attorney Moran on the charge of unlawfully conspiring to raise the price of ice.

BACK FRIENDS OF LABOR FOR THE SENATE

O'Rourke and O'Brien Making Effective Campaigns in the Worcester District.

GOOD RECORDS IN HOUSE

WORCESTER, Oct. 31.—Quiet but very effective campaigns have been made by Hugh H. O'Rourke, Democratic candidate for Senator in the First Worcester District, and E. H. O'Brien, candidate in the Second District.

The records of these men have been placed before the voters and their good services as members of the House have been urged as proper reasons for their promotion to the Upper Branch of the Legislature.

Mr. O'Rourke lives in Ward 5, and has served four years in the House. Mr. O'Brien lives in Ward 3, and has served three terms in the House. As a member of the Committee on Public Health, Mr. O'Rourke rendered good service in behalf of laws that compel better inspection of food, and his arguments and expert testimony in a druggist, on the floor, in behalf of pure food bills, were strong factors in the passage of beneficial legislation.

Lifting Jack Bill Champion.

He has worked diligently to do away with the friendly relations of State commissions and public service corporations, and last year led the fight for a bill to have the members of the railroad commission paid directly by the State instead of having the railroads pay their salaries.

He secured a favorable committee report on the bill, but it was killed. For years he has been known as the champion of the lifting jack bill, which would require railroads and street railways to equip their cars with lifting jacks and other safety appliances.

His speeches on this measure have attracted great attention, and he has succeeded each year in convincing the House of the business of his demand for this law only to have the bills killed in the Senate, where he had no voice in the deliberations.

Mr. O'Rourke's opponent, Representative Elmer C. Potter, has the reputation of having been as zealous in behalf of corporation measures as Mr. O'Rourke has been in behalf of measures that directly affect the general public.

Good Record on Labor Bills.

The Republican opponent of Mr. O'Brien has never had any legislative experience. Mr. O'Brien has served on some of the most important committees of the House. He has been regarded, not as one of the leaders of the Democratic side of the House, but as one of the biggest men in debate in that body.

On important questions, labor questions and banking questions Mr. O'Brien came to be regarded as an authority. When labor matters held the attention of the House he was always relied upon to speak forcefully for the point desired by the organized wage-workers.

His Municipal Ownership bills have been among the principal measures in the last three sessions of the Legislature, and for them he has made splendid fights.

It is expected that on their good records as faithful workers at State House for the people, that both Mr. O'Rourke and Mr. O'Brien will be promoted to the Senate.

MINE MAGNATE ARRESTED.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—William J. Scott of New York city, who says he is a wealthy mine owner, quarryman and contractor, was arrested here last night on an indictment charging him with having embezzled $5,500 from St. Louisans.

BIG STORE MAN TURNING TOWN HISGEN'S WAY

GARDNER, Oct. 31.—Prime Robichaud, of the firm of Robichaud & Mountain, the largest clothing dealers in this town, is the leading spirit in the local organization of the Independence League. Since its organization he has been enthusiastic in its praise and energetic in working for its advancement.

This Fall he is out with his coat off working in the interests of candidate Hisgen. When seen by an AMERICAN reporter Mr. Robichaud said:

"Anything that William R. Hearst advocates or sanctions is good enough for me. I know then that there is no graft connected with it, and that it is for the interests of the people.

"Here in Gardner the Independence League candidate for Governor last year polled 675 votes out of 1,733 cast, and it was the banner ward of the League in this town.

"This year Hisgen will do even better. The time is coming when an Independence League will sit in the Governor's chair and then we will get a square deal."

3 KILLED, MANY HURT IN LONDON WRECK

London, Nov. 2.—Three persons were killed and a dozen were injured to-day in a rear-end collision at the West Hampstead station of the Metropolitan underground railroad. The rear train run by the signals in a fog and crashed into train standing at the station.

Queen Quality SHOES

"They fit when others fail"

ALL STYLES & LEATHERS

$3.00 $3.50 $4.00

How few people can decide the merits of a pair of shoes by inspecting them.

Can you?

Not one in a hundred can do it.

That's where the value of a good name comes in. That's why, when buying shoes, so many women rely upon the stamp "Queen Quality" for protection.

And does it protect?

For a decade the "Queen Quality" sales have led the world—yet the demand grows bigger every day.

That's the answer.

This store has the sole agency.

DENIES WIFE'S ELOPEMENT

Captain Charles H. Hilton, Jr., U. S. A., stationed at Portland, authorizes a denial of the report which appeared in the newspapers last week regarding Mrs. Hilton. According to the captain's statement, Mrs. Hilton came from Portland to Boston on an ordinary visit, with his full knowledge and consent. He says he has no knowledge of any private stationed at Fort Williams by the name of Roy Reed. Mrs. Hilton came here unaccompanied, her husband says, and is now back at her Portland home.

Girls, Don't Think You Are Invaluable, Whatever Your Work

By Beatrice Fairfax

NEVER make the mistake, if you are a girl who works for a living, of thinking that your place cannot be filled.

No matter how well you do your work, there is always some one to be found who can do it just as well.

There is nothing discouraging in this. It simply means that in order to succeed you must never relax from doing you very best.

If you grow listless and careless in your work it is a sign of one or two things—you are run down and tired out, or you are not interested in your work.

If you are working merely for the money paid you every week you will never make much of a success in that particular line.

Must Be Interested

TO do good work you must be interested in what you are doing. You must put your mind in it as well as your hands.

Don't dream of the dance you attended last night or the theatre you are going to this evening.

And don't drift into rosy visions of what a certain young man may say to you when next you meet.

Just keep your mind on the work you are paid to do, my dear, and try your level best to do it well.

When a girl loses a position she usually has an excuse which more or less lays all the blame on her employer. But very often down in the depths of her heart she knows that she was not really doing her work as well as she could.

Almost every day I go to luncheon to a little restaurant perched as near the sky as it can get.

A great many young business women patronize the same place, and it is always entertaining to watch them as they alert and business-like from those who think of little else save beaus and clothes.

Plenty Waiting

BUT how can the girl who does not give satisfaction expect her employer to refrain from putting a more capable worker in her place?

It is the same with domestic service; the girl who tries to please her mistress by neatness, economy and an obliging manner can usually keep her place as long as she wants to. But she must never forget that if she fails some one else can be found to fill her place.

Whether your work be in domestic or business lines, there is always some ambitious person willing to have a try at it.

Sometimes the work one does day after day grows wearisome and monotonous. Then comes the danger of performing it perfunctorily.

If this is the case with you, try and get outdoors as much as possible. Take a brisk little walk at your luncheon hour.

Gets Lots of Air

TAKE advantage of every chance at relaxation and amusement that you reasonably can.

Spend your Sundays out of doors; anything to blow the cobwebs from your brain.

And never forget that during working hours your first duty lies in your work.

The money panic we have just gone through is a lesson to every one to save up for a rainy day. No matter how small your salary is, try and save just a little bit of it.

When you get married you will feel very proud and independent if you have a snug little bank account of your own.

This is not scolding, dear girls; it is simply a little chat from one working woman to her sisters.

BY FRANCES SAVAGE

DEBUTANTS on top of another for the poor rich. Stocks 'way down, everything going to ruin and now they have to introduce their blossoming daughters to society, and even if the most rigid economy is practiced, this cannot be done properly with an outlay short of $20,000.

Rank and fashion and prevalence take sandwiches with them to their offices and drink coffee in a tin can from the "beanery."

Their daughters, who are on the verge of debutantehood, must also make the pennies go as far as possible and get along on the simplest sort of a layout of clothes. It's the funny that lexicographers found the word economy for the tribe, but have failed to provide its like for the debutante.

By careful figuring it is found that a debutante may get along most frugally on $25,000—possibly. Here are the figures on what a debutante in low water must have to wear to maintain her position and meet all social requirements:

DEBUTANTE'S WARDROBE.

|---|---|
| Seven morning gowns | $450 |
| Ten street gowns | 1,500 |
| Ten afternoon gowns | 2,000 |
| Twelve house gowns | 1,800 |
| Evening gowns (assorted) | 2,000 |
| Ten reception gowns | 2,000 |
| Ten ball gowns | 2,000 |
| Opera costumes, etc | 2,000 |
| Twelve sets French lingerie | 600 |
| Fifteen silk petticoats | 375 |
| Jewels | 5,000 |
| Furs | 1,500 |
| Total | $24,225 |

By a little scraping and careful economy the total may be kept down to $20,000, but it is far more likely to go above $25,000 than as low as $20,000.

Must Have Individuality

Besides answering for herself the questions: "How many gowns?" "Of what colors and fabrics?" "What style is the one, and a never-ending series of heartbreaks over the sometimes disappointing results of all this labor. Then the worrying days must be gone all over again.

What wonder that many of the debutantes, on the day of their "coming out," look white, wan and altogether weary?

When a girl enters society everything in her wardrobe must be entirely new.

Lingerie Is Costly

First the lingerie, in this age of expensive simplicity, imported lingerie is the most popular. These garments are made by the French as a rule, and are of the sheerest and softest linen.

Very little lace is used in trimming, but hand embroidery is seen everywhere, some of it very elaborate and in effect quite really simple. All of it, however, has the monogram of its owner embroidered upon it, and costs from $50 to $400 a set.

Then comes the petticoats. There must be one to match every gown, and the plainest should be a dainty affair of fine linen, trimmed with cost $25, while the more elaborate ones run high as $200.

Morning gowns are usually of soft silks and crepes, and cost anywhere from $60 to $300 each. The debutante must have at least one of these.

Of street gowns, she must have at least seven, and these are usually tailor made, and range in price from $150 to $1,000.

Afternoon gowns are almost always of silk or broadcloth, and cost from $200 to $500 and even more. A girl just entering society does not have the number of gowns of a society woman, so her most expensive afternoon gown will not cost more than $300.

Her house gown of crepe de chine, chiffon and lace will be simple in design, but will cost from $150 to $200 each. She must be a dozen or more of these.

Her evening gowns are innumerable, sometimes a single debutante having as many as one hundred. These are of the palest colors, and in the rather heavier materials, such as chiffon velvet, mirror velvet crepes and chiffon cloths. These are her most elaborate gowns, and one may cost as high as $2,000, while none will be less than $300.

Reception gowns will contain every known material, sometimes three or four of these. These are also expensive, from $200 to $1,200 each, and there must be fifteen or twenty of these.

$2,500 Ball Gown

When it comes to ball gowns, again we have an expensive "simplicity." White is most popular in ball gowns for a debutante, though pale colors may also be used. The daintiest fabrics are made into these gowns, and the trimming may be anything but no more than cobwebs. Do not be misled into thinking these "little gowns" are as simple as they look. The most inexpensive will cost $200, and one "little ball gown" cost a recent debutante $5,500.

Then she must have gowns and wraps for the opera, for driving and for almost every occasion, all on a similar scale.

Most Popular Jewels

It would not be good taste for a debutante to wear many jewels. She may wear the less expensive stones, such as sapphires, emeralds, turquoise, etc., but the most popular jewels for a debutante are pearls, and of these she must have many.

Here again we have the simplicity that means dollars. Pearls worn in effect are even the most valuable diamonds. The simplest form of string of pearls which encircles the neck of the debutante may cost $1,000 when put on.

Furs is another matter of individuality, but $1,500 would about cover the list for a debutante, though many will pay ten times that sum for furs.

The boa of ostrich feathers, now so much up to a dozen in number, may cost anywhere from $2 up to $175 a piece.

Long gloves have gloves to match every gown, and several pair of each color.

The number of gloves can be numbered by the dozens, ranging in price from $1.50 to $50 a pair.

So it is clear that fitting out a young woman properly for society, with gowns, hats, wraps, lingerie, gloves, shoes, stockings, etc., and prove to be in the neighborhood of $20,000, and this is extremely conservative.

How Much Sleep Do You Get?

By IRVING R. BACON

SOME people pride themselves upon the fact that they spend less time in sleep than others. They tell you that sleep is a habit, anyway, and that if you practise long enough you may reach the enviable point at which you are able to dispense with sleep altogether.

They instance the great Napoleon and other men of stupendous genius, who had a knack of getting along on a couple of hours' sleep a day.

And somewhere among the apothegms of history is a reference to a pleasant faculty Aristotle is said to have had of getting without any sleep at all. According to this story, the great Greek philosopher used to study sitting up and holding in his hand a big iron ball, which, whenever he began to doze, would fall from his hand onto a brazen gong. The noise of which awakened him, so that he could continue his studies without interruption.

Without attempting to scrutinize the truth or falsity of stories of this kind, which are strongly of the nature fishing, they would, if true, only go to show to what an appalling extent a human being is capable of abusing his faculties for the gratification of his ambition.

Soul Needs Rest

THE argument used by the advocates of sleeplessness that the soul, being an immaterial substance, does not require rest, is so illogical that it will render to any man capable of sound reasoning should ever have to refute it.

As well might it be said that because the eye or ear is capable of strong and clear-sighted, the loss of the telescope through which it has been looking should never have the dust removed from it.

The comparison is not a fantastic one. For just as the telescope is the instrument employed by the eye, so the brain may be said to be the instrument employed by the soul.

Sleep is to the brain what the removal of the accumulations of dust is to the telescope lens. It is what lying fallow is to the soil, which causes it to bear fruit and be in all interests and purposes dead unless it is permitted to rest occasionally.

One-Third of Life

IT cannot be denied that sleep is a great curtailer of our usefulness. It has for this reason been compared to death, and in a way it is, save that of brief death, just as death, on the other hand, may be looked upon as a long sleep.

One-third of our life is passed in sleep; and of course, that seems like a terrible waste. But as a matter of fact it is one of those things that we class as necessary evils, and have to try to make the best of. Earlier ages looked upon sleep as a luxury, but would not be be esteemed a trifle radical who advocated its doing away with it?

As to the number of hours we should spend in sleep, that is something which varies with each person's constitution.

Eight hours is the most popular figure and should take at least seven hours a day. Others can get along with less, while still others require even more. But more than eight hours a day should probably be put as injurious by excess as too few hours would be in the other direction.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Some sand or pebbles, put in tall, slender vases, covering flowers, will prevent their tipping over and adding the finishing touch.

A pretty woman should wear a belt to match the blouse, as this adds to the length of her waist. Or she wears a black belt, it should be worn with a black skirt and blouse down in the front.

Ribbon run in elastic should be sewed in place with a space of one and a half inches between the hooks on right side, eyes on the opposite side.

Does Magic Enter Into Cure of Warts?

BY IRVING R. BACON

WHY on don't believe in magic. Well, perhaps you are right, even though Shakespeare did say:

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamed of in your philosophy."

It is fashionable to be skeptical, and, besides, we have been humbugged so often with "supernatural fakes" that it is not surprising people have become suspicious and refuse to believe things that used to be matters of course in "the good old times."

Lord Bacon believed in magic. He called it "practical metaphysics," and thought it is accounted one of the greatest philosophers that ever lived. I don't know exactly why his belief in magic should be considered repulsive. The same Lord Bacon ridiculed the Copernican system of astronomy, which is now accepted as the correct.

On the other hand here is something which his lordship vouches for as a personal experience in the magic line, and disagrees.

there would be manifest injustice in doubting his word merely because we have prejudged magic as an impossibility.

Lord Bacon had a wart on one of his fingers. Later, a wart on one of his fingers. Later, a wart on one of his fingers. Later,
